

SING apove!

During the longest concert in the history of the Singapore Indoor Stadium, Emil Chau wowed the crowd with wonderful songs and plenty of warmth and humor.

Emil sang some 40 songs, among which were If by David Gates, Your Song by Elton John, and Vincent by Don McLean.

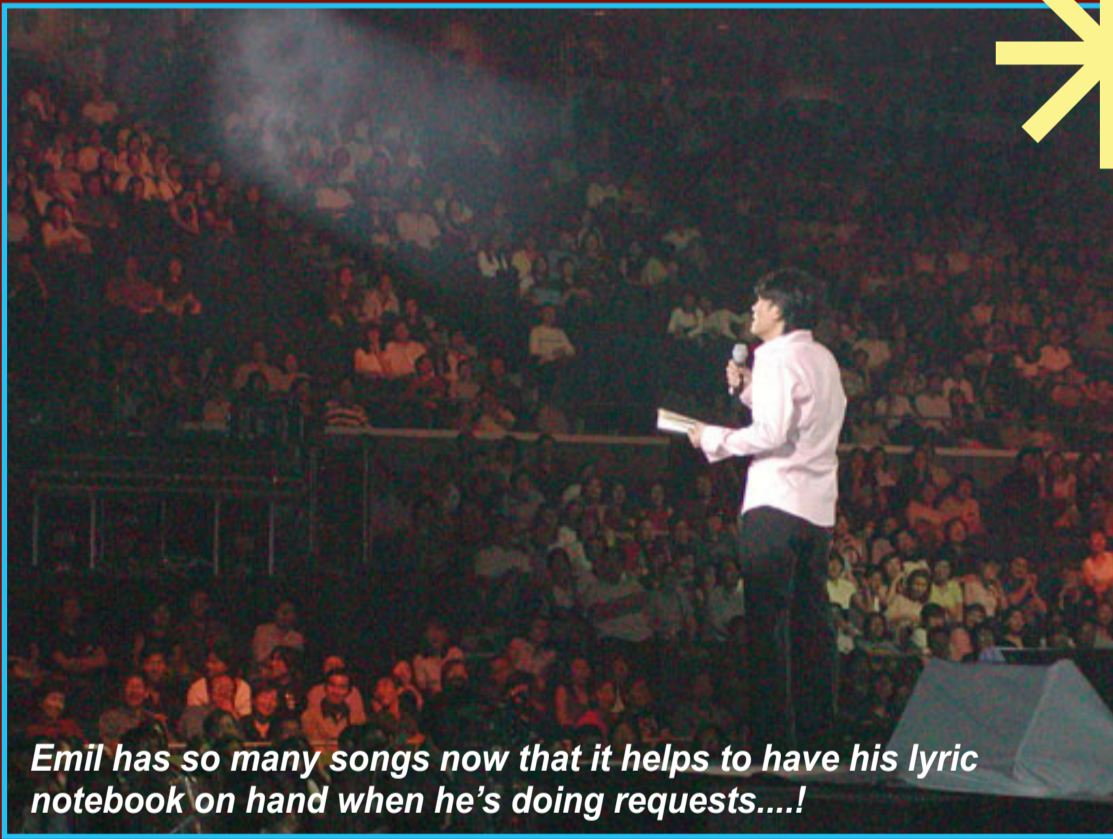

WHOOSH! What a convenient way to cool off during a concert!

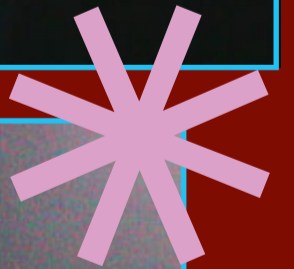

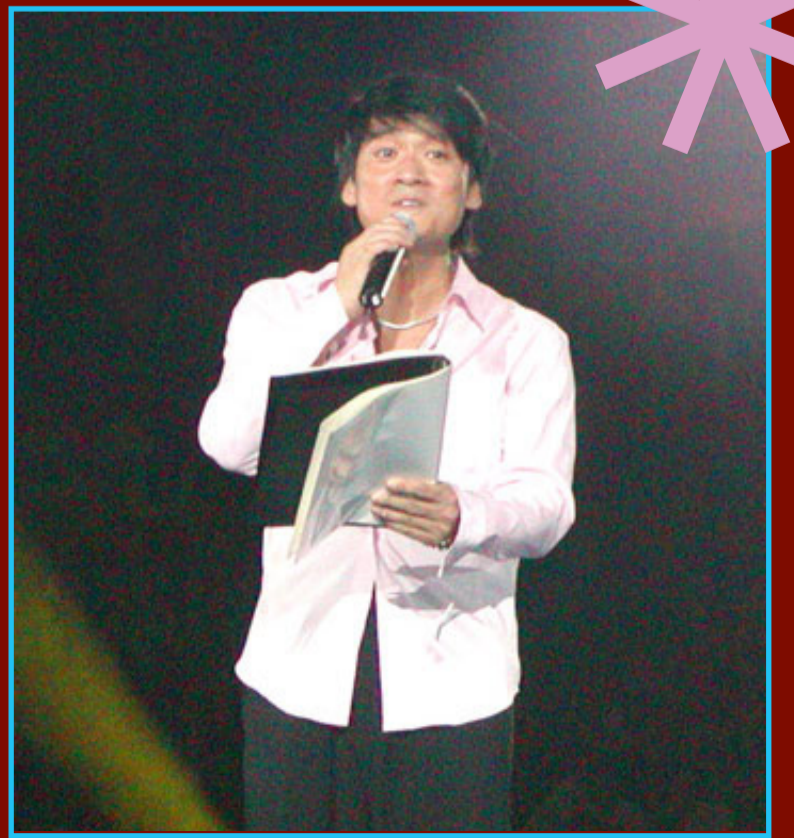

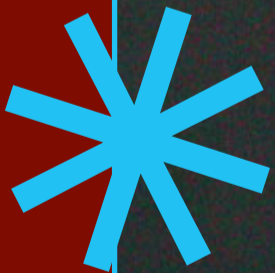

But there are perils in performing too, such as confetti in the eyes....

Local comic and Emil pal Jack Neo came out to joke and sing a bit during the show—quite amusing!

Emil has so many songs now that it helps to have his lyric notebook on hand when he's doing requests....!

Emil was so fit and energetic, and his concert lasted for a full 3 1/2 hours! As a matter of fact, if the show had run a minute longer, Emil & Co. could've been fined by the feds for violating stadium rules.....
